Roseville, CA (PRWEB) October 27, 2011 -- Year after year Thrift Town Stores have consistently been recognized by various reader choice awards as Best Thrift Store. 2011 is no different.

This year Thrift Town has won Best Thrift Store in the following markets and publications:

- Fort Worth Weekly – Fort Worth/Tarrant County, Texas
- Sacramento News & Review - The Greater Sacramento Area, CA
- SF Bay Guardian - The San Francisco Bay Area, CA
- SF Weekly – San Francisco, CA
- San Antonio Current – San Antonio, Texas
- Weekly Alibi – Albuquerque, New Mexico
- Local IQ – Albuquerque, New Mexico

It isn't a fluke that Thrift Town has received accolades year after year. Thrift Town isn't your stereotypical thrift store. The San Francisco Bay Guardian said it best back in 2008; "Thrift Town's not your tame little vintage boutique — it's a massive beast of a thrift store, with a huge selection and dizzyingly low prices."

Shopping thrift is not only easy on the wallet; it's environmentally friendly as well. Thrift Town actively encourages consumers to reuse and recycle as much as possible and runs quarterly and seasonal online contests rewarding consumers with gift cards for their Best Finds, Halloween Costume & Décor Contest, and Ugly Christmas Sweater Contest. For location and online contest information, please visit www.thrifttown.com.

Thrift Town lives its vision statement of being committed to making a difference every day, raising nearly $85 million dollars for their charity partners by purchasing goods from their charity's household recycling programs. Thrift Town's clean, bright, and organized stores put out 4,000 new products daily, setting them apart in the thrift world as the premier thrift destination. Thrift Town is owned and operated by Norquist Salvage Corporation, which has spend nearly four decades dedicated to socially responsible recycling.
